TRABZON

TÜRKIYE

Trabzon, located on Turkey's northeastern Black Sea coast, is a city rich in history, culture, and natural beauty. Known for its lush greenery, mist-covered mountains, and the striking Sumela Monastery, Trabzon offers a unique blend of nature and heritage. The city was historically an important stop on the Silk Road and boasts the Hagia Sophia of Trabzon, a beautiful Byzantine church. Visitors can explore the scenic Uzungöl Lake, hike through the Kaçkar Mountains, or experience local customs at the vibrant markets. With its stunning landscapes and historical significance, Trabzon is an ideal destination for both adventurers and culture seekers.
