LYON

FRANCE

Lyon, located in southeastern France, is a city known for its rich history, stunning architecture, and gastronomic excellence. As a UNESCO World Heritage site, its Old Town (Vieux Lyon) features Renaissance buildings and cobblestone streets. The city is famous for its traboules, secret passageways once used by silk weavers. Lyon is also the culinary capital of France, with traditional bouchons offering dishes like quenelles and Lyonnaise salad. The Parc de la Tête d'Or and the Basilica of Notre-Dame de Fourvière provide breathtaking views. With its vibrant cultural scene and charming atmosphere, Lyon is a must-see for foodies and history lovers.
