

The River of Time

Cairo, Luxor & Aswan

6 Days, 5 Nights

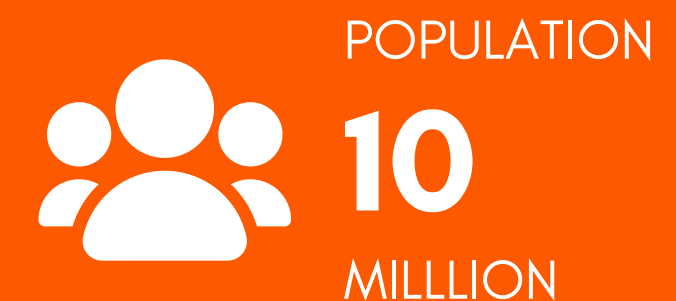

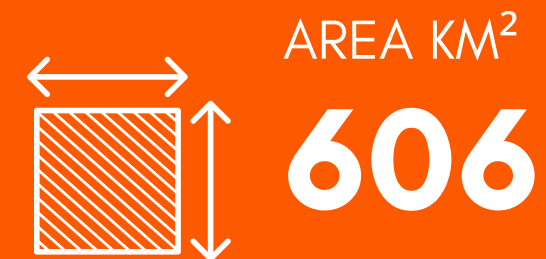

CAIRO

EGYPT

Cairo, the bustling capital of Egypt, is a city where ancient history and vibrant modernity converge. Home to the iconic Pyramids of Giza and the Great Sphinx, it offers a glimpse into one of the world's oldest civilizations. Visitors can explore the treasures of the Egyptian Museum, stroll through the lively Khan El Khalili bazaar, or marvel at the Islamic architecture of the Citadel and Al-Azhar Mosque. The Nile River, which flows through the city, adds to its charm, offering picturesque cruises. Cairo's rich culture, delicious cuisine, and historical significance make it an unforgettable destination.

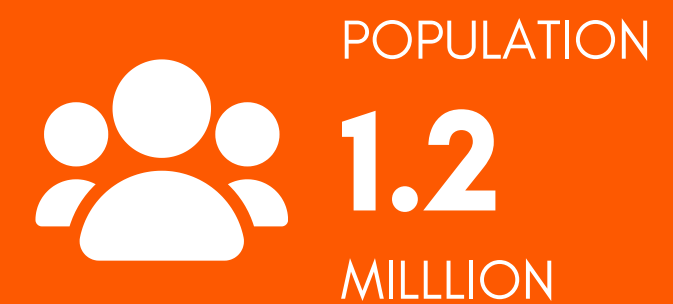

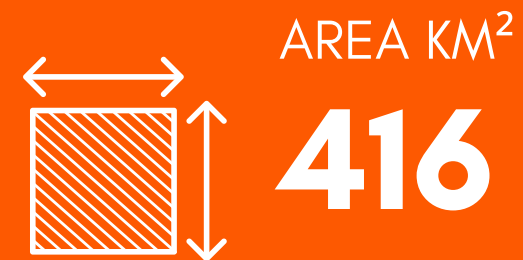

LUXOR

EGYPT

Luxor, often called the "world's greatest open-air museum," is a treasure trove of ancient Egyptian history located along the Nile River. The city is home to iconic landmarks like the sprawling Karnak Temple, the Luxor Temple, and the Valley of the Kings, where the tombs of pharaohs, including Tutankhamun, lie. Visitors can enjoy hot air balloon rides over the West Bank or sail on traditional feluccas along the Nile. Luxor offers a unique blend of ancient wonders and modern hospitality, making it a must-visit destination for history enthusiasts and cultural explorers alike.

ASWAN

EGYPT

Aswan, a serene city in southern Egypt along the Nile River, is a gateway to ancient wonders and Nubian culture. Famous for its tranquil beauty, Aswan is home to the majestic Philae Temple, the Unfinished Obelisk, and the Aswan High Dam. Visitors can explore the colorful Nubian villages or take a felucca ride to Elephantine Island. Nearby, the colossal temples of Abu Simbel showcase the grandeur of Ramses II. Aswan's warm hospitality, stunning sunsets over the Nile, and relaxed atmosphere make it a unique destination for history lovers and those seeking a peaceful escape.
